AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(c), Linens 'N Things asserts the following affirmative defenses to Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint:

First Affirmative Defense: Non-Infringement

44. Linens 'N Things has not infringed and does not infringe any valid and enforceable claim of the '455 patent, either directly, by inducement or by contribution.

Second Affirmative Defense: Invalidity

45. The claims of the '455 patent are invalid for failure to satisfy one or more of the conditions of patentability set forth in 35 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., including, but not limited to, 35 U.S.C. §§ 102, 103 and/or 112.

Third Affirmative Defense: Inequitable Conduct

46. Upon information and belief, the '455 patent is unenforceable due to inequitable conduct by the named inventor, Michelle Baker, and/or her attorneys and appointed representatives before the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the "PTO") as part of the prosecution of related U.S. Patent No. 6,002,401 ("the '401 patent"). Upon information and belief, Ms. Baker and her representative violated the duty of candor with the intent to deceive the PTO, as described with particularity below.

Declarations Submitted under 37 CFR §1.131

47. Upon information and belief, Ms. Baker and her representative submitted false and misleading Rule 131 declarations with intent to deceive the PTO to obtain a U.S. patent.

Ms. Baker submitted a false and misleading Rule 131 declaration during the prosecution of the '401 patent to avoid references material to patentability as prior art, including at least U.S. Patent No. 5,682,469 to Linnett.

48. Ms. Baker's declaration alleged a date of conception prior to 1993 and due diligence from about October 18, 1993 until the effective filing date of September 30, 1994 to eliminate as prior art references material to patentability that were dated on or after October 18, 1993, including at least the Linnett reference. The declaration did not set forth sufficient facts to support such a declaration, as required under 37 CFR § 1.131(b). For the time period from October 1993 to June 1994, Ms. Baker asserted diligence without providing any factual support for the alleged diligence or an explanation for the lack of support. From June 1994 until the effective filing date, Ms. Baker showed insufficient support of diligence. The declaration also did not provide any factual support showing what aspects of the invention were conceived by October 18, 1993. Ms. Baker's representative provided a similar Rule 131 declaration, also lacking the showing of facts required under 37 CFR § 1.131(b). Upon information and belief, Ms. Baker and her representative do not have evidence of diligence, and Ms. Baker's and her representative's express representations of diligence were both false and misleading to the PTO.

49. The prosecution of the '401 patent was materially affected by the sworn representations of diligence starting from October 1993. Based on the Rule 131 declarations, Ms. Baker and her representative eliminated at least the Linnett reference.

50. Ms. Baker and her representative intentionally misled the PTO into issuing claims of a scope beyond which Ms. Baker was entitled, thereby conducting inequitable conduct and rendering the '401 patent invalid. The inequitable conduct committed with respect to the '401 patent taints the related '455 patent, which is a continuation of the '401 patent, rendering the '455 patent unenforceable as well.

Fourth Affirmative Defense: Legal Remedy Appropriate

51. Picture Patents is not entitled to injunctive relief because any alleged injury to Picture Patents is not immediate or irreparable, and Picture Patents has an adequate remedy at law.

Fifth Affirmative Defense: Notice/Marking

52. Picture Patents is precluded by 35 U.S.C. §287 from seeking damages for any alleged infringement prior to providing actual notice of the '455 patent to Linens 'N Things.

Sixth Affirmative Defense: Failure to Mitigate Damages

53. Picture Patents failed to mitigate its damages.

Seventh Affirmative Defense: Laches

54. Picture Patents' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the equitable doctrine of laches.

Eighth Affirmative Defense: Statute of Limitations

55. Picture Patents' claims are barred, in whole or in part, under 35 U.S.C. §286.

Ninth Affirmative Defense: Prosecution History Estoppel

56. By reason of the proceedings in the PTO during the prosecution of the applications that resulted in the issuance of the '455 patent, Picture Patents is estopped from claiming infringement by Linens 'N Things of one or more claims of the '455 patent.

Reservation of Rights

Linens 'N Things reserves the right to add any additional defenses or counterclaims that discovery may reveal.

Request for Relief

Linens 'N Things respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment in its favor and against Picture Patents on all of Picture Patents' claims; that the Court find this case exceptional and award Linens 'N Things its costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §285; and that the Court award such other further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Defendant Linens 'N Things hereby demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.
